

Geometric Representation Theory

This is a Fall semester course for juniors, seniors and graduate students. The prerequisites include basic algebra and algebraic geometry. Some acquaintance with Lie algebras and Lie groups is very welcome. We will discuss the relations between representation theory of semisimple algebraic groups and their Lie algebras (over complex numbers or fields of positive characteristic) and geometry of their flag varieties.